Description of excursions

TOUR THE ARRIVAL OF HOTU MATUA

On this tour, it is possible to enter in the process of colonization of the island and the cultural traits of the first inhabitants of Rapa Nui.

Here is the history of Hotu Matua, the first King, who starts a settlement which lasted more than 700 years and which is recognized as the most prolific period of the island culture.

This excursion it is possible to visit the area in which landed Hotu Matua, the sector where it is believed that it is his tomb and some of the places where much of the giant statues that populate Easter Island were built.

Travel begins in the town of Hanga Roa, is directed toward the Anakena Beach on the way from the center of the island - area known as Vaitea - and concludes with the return of Hanga Roa for the South coast of Rapa Nui.

THE LEGEND OF THE BIRD-MAN EXCURSION

Guided by some of the most important ceremonial centers of Easter Island. The tour includes cave paintings and archaeological sites of great cultural value, an upgrade to the Rano Kau volcano and an interpretive trail through the ancient town of Orongo.

This route allows you to delve into the mythology of Rapa Nui, important elements of the geography of the island know and understand the enigmatic story of the ancient inhabitants of this isolated point of the planet.

This visit includes the places where competition of the Tangata Manu (bird man), based on a fundamental legend of the Rapa Nui culture is developed annually. The myth says that the man that captures the first egg of the Manutara (characteristic bird Islanders) will be invested with supernatural powers and will exercise the political-military jafatura of the island for a year.

EXCURSION STARGAZING

This tour allows you to know and understand the connection of the ancient inhabitants of Easter Island with the universe.

The excursion includes ceremonial centers built in the central area of the island during the last period of construction of MOAI, the most important of the Rapa Nui culture. Are megalithic archaeological sites that demonstrate how astronomy determined the layout of the giant statues and platforms that are held, with which it is possible to introduce in the cosmology of the ancient Polynesian navigators to They settled in Easter Island.

All points visited incorporate ancient sites that were created and used during the end of the Ahu-Moai. Such sites represent diverse cultural developments of the Rapa Nui history, all strategically deployed around ceremonial centres.

"Looking at the stars" includes three restored sites: Ahu Huri to Urenga, Ahu Ahu Vai Teki, Kivi, the quarry of Puna Pau, where there are the most attractive Pukao (hats or headdresses of Red scoria that Crown the heads of some Moai)
